Personal Porter™ Provides the Latest in Luxury Travel with Its New Door-to-Door Luggage Delivery Service

New global door-to-door luggage delivery company Personal Porter™ provides the latest service in luxury travel. Comfort, convenience, reliability and security are the priorities behind this innovative service, which bypasses traditional check-in, by picking up luggage from homes, hotels or offices and delivering them to any destination in the world.

“Travelling luggage free is a trend already established in the USA and UK and it is set to become the same in Australia” said James Garrod, Co-founder and Group Marketing Director. “The luxury and convenience of travelling with just the bare essentials is increasingly important to travellers, as security, limited baggage allowances and excess fees continue to escalate”.

“The Personal Porter™ service ensures travellers can relax and enjoy their journey in the knowledge that their luggage which can include anything from expensive sporting equipment to designer clothes is in the hands of experts”.

“Luggage is collected prior to travel, tracked throughout its journey with regular real-time SMS updates and delivered to its destination before the traveller has arrived. All country Customs requirements and procedures are handled by Personal Porter™ making it a seamless experience”, he said.

All it takes is 5 easy steps:

- 1) Log on to www.personalporter.com.au
- 2) Enter your travel itinerary to obtain a quote.
- 3) Complete the quick and simple online booking and payment.
- 4) Personal Porter™ will pick up from and deliver to the address of your choice. You will receive real-time SMS messages with updates on your luggage location.
- 5) Luggage is delivered safely, securely & reliably to your chosen destination.

“Gone are the days of waiting at the luggage carousel, the discomfort of carrying heavy luggage, concerns at fulfilling new security requirements and complying with ever reducing weight allowances” said James.
